

Health Care Compliance

Fowler White Boggs P.A. has broad experience proactively representing health care organizations, professionals and affiliated personnel in federal and state health care regulatory compliance matters including:

- Fraud & abuse
- Corporate internal investigations
- False Claims Act (FCA) qui tam litigation
- Anti-Kickback laws
- Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA")
- Stark & self-referral laws
- Audits
- Parallel litigation, arbitration & mediation

The Health Care Compliance practice group includes an impressive group of attorneys with the legal skill and experience necessary to handle all aspects of the government's regulatory compliance. Our diverse team includes a former federal prosecutor, Latour "LT" Lafferty, who was primarily responsible for the investigation, litigation and trial of False Claims Act (FCA) qui tam cases with the United States Attorney's Office (USAO). Mr. Lafferty is also certified in healthcare compliance (CHC) by the Health Care Compliance Association (HCCA). This experienced team of litigators and business lawyers work closely together across the Firm's other practice groups to integrate their substantive knowledge into a highly effective and coordinated strategy in health care regulatory compliance matters.
