

Taxation

Fowler White Boggs has one of the strongest groups of Tax lawyers in the state of Florida. Our Firm has been consecutively ranked as a leading Florida law firm for Tax since 2004 by Chambers USA.

Fowler White Boggs's Tax attorneys handle all aspects of federal, international, state and local taxation. Our Federal Tax Group assists clients with various needs, such as tax planning, like-kind exchanges, the structuring of mergers and acquisitions, and many more. Our Firm's International Tax attorneys provide legal services to foreign investors, high net worth foreign families, U.S. companies, and U.S. business executives. The lawyers within the International Tax practice area handle diverse issues, including international tax controversies, expatriation, and the sourcing of income. The third area that comprises our Tax practice is the State and Local Taxation Group. The attorneys within this group address legislative tax matters, administrative and judicial actions, corporate structuring, and other tax planning activities. Fowler White Boggs's Federal, International, and State and Local Taxation Groups work together to provide our clients with the best service possible.

Practice Leader

Mitchell I. Horowitz

Practice Team

E. Jackson Boggs
Hunter J. Brownlee
Darren D. Farfante
Micah G. Fogarty
Mitchell I. Horowitz
Richard A. Jacobson
Lawrence M. Ploucha
William D. Townsend
Rex D. Ware