

Federal Tax

Fowler White Boggs's Tax Group is involved in all aspects of federal taxation, including advice and counsel in structuring mergers, acquisitions, spin-offs, sales, shareholder agreements, partnerships, limited liability companies, joint ventures, and other matters. At the end of a business's cycle, our attorneys can assist with tax planning in dissolving and liquidating the entity. Our Firm's Tax Group also has extensive experience with like-kind exchanges, real estate financing, investor vs. dealer issues, and structuring real estate investment and development transactions. In addition, our attorneys provide clients with tax advice in organizing and operating tax-exempt entities and foundations. Our Firm's Tax attorneys also have a great deal of experience in representing clients before the Internal Revenue Service on a wide variety of civil and criminal tax issues, including bankruptcy tax planning. Our federal tax attorneys are also knowledgeable in state and local tax planning with respect to business transactions.

Practice Team

E. Jackson Boggs
Hunter J. Brownlee
Darren D. Farfante
Micah G. Fogarty
Mitchell I. Horowitz
Latour "LT" Lafferty
Jason Liu