

James F. King

James F. King serves as the firm's Chief Operating Officer, overseeing the firm's administrative departments. He is a certified public accountant and has over 20 years experience at the law firm. Prior to joining Fowler White Boggs, Mr. King was with the R.A. Jones & Co., a manufacturing company, and the multi-national accounting firm of Peat Marwick.

Presentations and Publications

Presentations

- Maximizing the Investment in Our People
- Law Firm Economics 101
- Strategic Thinking for Law Firms
- Document Management and Knowledge Management--The Business Case
- Hurricane Preparedness

Publications

- Feature Article in the November/December 2011 issue of Legal Management - The Fit Firm: A law firm manager's guide to establishing an effective wellness program. Click here to read the article.

Professional Affiliations

- Association of Legal Administrators (ALA): Suncoast Chapter, National Leadership Caucus

Chief Operating Officer

Tampa

(813) 222-1101

jking@fowlerwhite.com

Education

B.A., cum laude, Furman University,
Accounting and Business
Administration, 1982