

R. Michael Underwood

Mike Underwood was a key official at the predecessor of the Florida Department of Financial Services and authored many provisions of Florida's securities and banking laws. Since leaving government, he has become recognized as a national leader in financial services regulation, especially in Florida. He represents securities broker-dealers, investment advisers, mortgage brokers, financial institutions and affiliated individuals in civil litigation, arbitration, regulatory investigations and enforcement actions. His experience includes defense of class actions, multi-district litigation and regular appearances before self-regulatory organizations as well as state and federal financial regulators. Mike's primary focus is assisting firm clients with state and federal securities, banking and insurance regulatory matters. He is an officer of the American Bar Association Committee on State Regulation of Securities and Chair of its Subcommittee on Enforcement. He has been published often on financial services regulation and lectures frequently on these topics.

Representative Experience

- Negotiated agreement with Florida securities regulator for expansion of large independent broker-dealer.
