

Technology and E-Commerce

Fowler White Boggs's Technology and E-Commerce Industry Team handles licensing agreements, protection of intellectual property, litigates computer related disputes of all types including computer software copyright infringement, misappropriation of trade secrets in computer technology, replevin of misappropriated technology, non-compete litigation with high-tech employees, fraud in the sale of computer systems, computer professional negligence liability, breach of computer contracts, internet related litigation, domain name disputes and Year 2000 or Daylight Savings Time change disputes. The Technology and E-Commerce Group also drafts and negotiates computer related agreements including computer software license and support agreements, VAR agreements, hardware sale, lease and maintenance agreements, outsourcing and professional services agreements, marketing agreements and technology development agreements.

Practice Team

Heather B. Brock
Hunter J. Brownlee
Tirso M. Carreja, Jr.
Kendra Loar Gaugush
Kelly H. Kolb
Jim Magill
Monica B. Mason
Kim McGlynn
Andrew L. McIntosh
David C. Potter
Robert G. Riegel, Jr.
John McKager "Mac"
Stipanovich
William D. Townsend
Rex D. Ware
Jeffrey P. Watson
Arnold M. Zipper