

Telecommunications and Utilities

Fowler White Boggs provides advice to telecom companies and utilities related to regulation, pricing, legislative advocacy and related matters. Our lawyers counsel clients on the operation and financing of public service companies, utilities and telecom projects. Our lawyers have strong working relationships with many of the industry agencies, programs and associations as well as with suppliers, and distribution chains. We provide services in:

- Abandonment proceedings
- Appellate proceedings
- Contract preparation
- Enforcement proceedings
- Eminent domain proceedings
- Litigation
- State or local tax disputes
- Zoning
