

Insurance

Fowler White Boggs has been ranked as a leading Florida law firm for Insurance Practice by Chambers USA in consecutive years beginning in 2004. Our Insurance practice covers a number of segments of the industry including business, regulatory, and litigation. We offer a monthly enewsletter that offers industry news as well as case reporting and analysis and notices of upcoming seminars on insurance issues. Visit our "What's News" section to sign up for this enews service.

Insurance Coverage and First Party

The Insurance Coverage Litigation Group focuses its practice on providing advice to clients concerning the rights and obligations of parties to an insurance contract. We have extensive experience in the interpretation of insurance contracts, their application to certain sets of facts as well as the implied obligations that arise from the insurance contract.

The Insurance Coverage Litigation Group handles all kinds of insurance, whether it be a simple health insurance matter or complex commercial reinsurance transaction. Whether the claim is one for benefits under a life, health, property or liability-type policy, we have lawyers who devote their practice to analyzing and understanding the rights and obligations of insureds and insurance companies under the contract and provide advice concerning those claims that may or may not be covered.

Insurance Regulatory and Litigation

Fowler White Boggs addresses the needs of a broad spectrum of global and domestic financial service businesses including insurance and reinsurance companies (with respect to life/annuities, health, title and captive insurers), investment companies, offshore funds, producers (including insurance agents, third party administrators, managing general agents and broker/dealers), investment advisers, pension fund administrators, banks and other financial services companies, and insurance regulators. We offer regulatory advice, provide guidance on product development and give counsel on all aspects of insurance company legal challenges.

Insurance Fraud and Special Investigations

Our Special Investigations Unit (SIU)/Fraud Investigation Group focuses on assisting insurers in investigating and defending claims involving fraudulent schemes state wide. Our experience in SIU cases covers a broad range of fraud matters involving PIP, property claims, arson, burglary and uninsured motorist claims. From clinic billing fraud to staged accidents, our SIU/Fraud Investigation attorneys are experienced in evaluating the fraudulent elements of claims, taking Examinations Under Oath, working with law enforcement officials, filing counterclaims against fraudulent plaintiffs and successfully trying these matters to verdict.

Practice Team

E. K. Cottrell
W. Donald Cox
Bethany Crawley
Thomas E. Gibbs
Kelly H. Kolb
Jim Magill
John P. Marino
Kim McGlynn
Carl R. Nelson
Jennifer L. Prom
Robert G. Riegel, Jr.
Julie Simone Sneed
John McKager "Mac"
Stipanovich
Jessica A. Tetrick
Lindsey R. Trowell
R. Michael Underwood
Edward M. Waller, Jr.