

Kathy Billings Massing

Kathy Billings Massing is experienced in life, health and disability insurance coverage litigation, including ERISA matters. Her practice also includes the defense of agents and brokers regarding sales practices, suitability of annuities and life products, and other errors and omissions litigation.

Representative Experience

- Orleans Parish District Attorney's Office, New Orleans, LA
Senior Trial Attorney-Homicide Prosecutor, April 2000-August 2003
- Barkin and Neff, New Orleans, LA
Law Clerk/Associate Attorney, September 1997-April 2000
- Tulane Civil Litigation Clinic, New Orleans, LA
Student Attorney, September 1998-May 1999
- Multnomah County Legal Aid, Portland, OR Student Attorney, May 1998-August 1998

Professional Affiliations

- American Bar Association: Tort Trial and Insurance Practice Section
- Defense Research Institute: Member, Young Lawyers Division
- Federal Bar Association: Criminal Law Section; Board Member; Newsletter Editor
- Hillsborough County Bar Association: Member, Young Lawyers Division

Community Involvement

- Emerge Tampa: Member
- Ophelia Project: Mentor for the Young Leadership Board; Advisory Board, 2006-present

Associate

Tampa

(813) 222-2077

kathy.massing@fowlerwhite.com

Practice Areas

Health Insurance / Managed Care
Securities and Financial Services
Litigation

White Collar Crime, Government
Investigations and Regulatory Compliance

Industries

Transportation and Logistics

Education

J.D., cum laude, Tulane University
School of Law, 1999 (Member, *Tulane
Journal of International and Comparative Law*)

B.A., cum laude, University of Missouri, 1994

Bar Admissions

Florida

Louisiana

Court Admissions

U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida

U.S. District Court, Northern District of Florida

U.S. District Court, Southern District of Florida