

Gianluca Morello

Gianluca Morello practices in the areas of securities litigation and regulatory matters, antitrust litigation and counseling, financial services litigation, and other commercial litigation. Significant experience defending claims involving payment card practices, including federal antitrust class claims challenging practices involving currency conversion fees, interchange fees, "no-surcharge" policies, and offline debit cards; federal antitrust claims challenging practices involving an aviation fuel card; and state unfair and deceptive practices class claims challenging practices involving currency conversion fees.

Presentations and Publications

Publications

- "Diagnosing Monopsony and Other Issues: An Overview of the United/PacifiCare Investigation," Co-Authored with F. Schaeffer, and L. Protzmann, Antitrust Health Care Chronicle, March 2006
- "Big Six Accounting Firms Shop Worldwide for Law Firms: Why Multi-Discipline Practices Should Be Permitted in the United States," Author, 21 FORDHAM INT'L L. J. 190, 1997

Professional Affiliations

- American Bar Association: Section of Antitrust Law
- Fordham Int'l Law Journal Alumni Association: Associate Director
- Hamilton College

Shareholder

Tampa

(813) 769-7867

gianluca.morello@fowlerwhite.com

Practice Areas

Antitrust and Trade Regulation
Class Action Litigation
Securities and Financial Services Litigation
White Collar Crime, Government Investigations and Regulatory Compliance

Education

J.D., Fordham University School of Law, 1998 (Special Publications Editor, Fordham Int'l Law Journal; Moot Court Board)

B.A., Hamilton College, 1993 (Omicron Delta Epsilon)

Bar Admissions

Florida
New York

Court Admissions

U.S. Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit
U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida
U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York
U.S. District Court, Eastern District of New York