

Michael G. Rabinowitz

Michael G. Rabinowitz practices in the area of workers' compensation defense. He is known as a quick thinker and someone who understands the intricacies of workers' compensation insurance law. Some of his experience includes permanent total claims, Medicare Set Aside issues, and coverage issues involving the construction industry.

Representative Experience

- George Schafer, Esq, Gainesville, FL
January 1998-May 1998
- City Attorney's Office, City of Tallahassee, Tallahassee, FL
May 1999-August 1999

Presentations and Publications

Presentations

- "Maneuvering Through The Pitfalls Of Medical Benefits In A Post 10/1/03, Chapter 440," Specialty Risk Services, Hartford, March 2006
- "Interpreting Surveillance For Your Best Defense," AIG Claims Services Conference, April 2005

Professional Affiliations

- The Florida Bar: Workers' Compensation Section
- Hillsborough County Bar Association
- Pinellas County Bar Association

Community Involvement

- Tampa Museum of Art: Avant Garde Steering Committee, Young Professionals Fundraising

Associate

Tampa

(813) 228-7411

mrabinowitz@fowlerwhite.com

Practice Areas

Workers' Compensation

Education

J.D., Florida State University College of Law, 2001

B.A., With High Honors, University of Florida, 1998

Bar Admissions

Florida