

Michael D. Randolph

Michael D. Randolph has experience in general civil trial practice with an emphasis on construction and real estate litigation primarily representing contractors.

Representative Experience

- Simpson, Henderson, Carta & Randolph, Fort Myers, FL
Informal Partnership, October 1997-September 2006
- First Federal Savings & Loan Association., Fort Myers, FL
Assistant Vice President and Collections Officer
January 1986-June 1989
February 1990-August 1994
- Omni Financial Services, Fort Myers, FL
Associate, June 1989-February 1990

Professional Affiliations

- The Calusa American Inn of Court: 1999 - 2001
- Lee County Bar Association: Board of Directors, Member-at-large

Community Involvement

- Abuse, Counseling and Treatment, Inc. ("ACT"): Board of Directors, 2003 - present
- American Heart Association: Heart Walk Team Captain, 1987-1988
- Heart Out Lee County: Team Captain, 1988-1989
- Kiwanis of Fort Myers: Member, 1986-1993; Kiwanian of the Year, 1988
- Paint Your Heart Out Lee County: Team Captain, 1988-1989
- Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church: Chair, Pastor-Parrish Committee, 1999-2003; Chair, Finance Board, 1990-1991; Administrative Board, 1986-1989

Distinctions

Board Certified in Construction Law, The Florida Bar

Shareholder

Fort Myers
(239) 985-4806
michael.randolph@fowlerwhite.com

Practice Areas

Commercial Litigation
Construction Litigation
Corporate and Partnership Litigation
Real Estate Litigation

Industries

Construction
Manufacturing

Education

J.D., Mercer University Walter F.
George School of Law, 1997
B.S., University of Florida, 1985

Bar Admissions

Florida

Court Admissions

United States District Court