

Linda M. Robison

Linda M. Robison has more than thirty years experience in private practice, focusing on corporate and securities law matters, including extensive experience representing public and private companies in the healthcare industry and lenders to such companies. Securities experience encompassing preparation of registration statements for equity and debt offerings as well as exchange offers, private placements, proxy statements, and various other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Representation of provider entities in the structuring of joint ventures with referral sources, general fraud and abuse matters, and provider contracting arrangements. Private practice began as an associate at Fulbright & Jaworski LLP, Houston, Texas, and held subsequent partnership positions at Johnson & Gibbs, P.C. (Dallas, Texas), Hughes & Luce LLP (Houston, Texas), and Weil, Gotshal & Manges, LLP (Houston, Texas). Most recently, founding partner in Robison & Folk LLP, Houston, Texas, and Boca Raton, Florida.

Presentations and Publications

Presentations

- "Texas Health Law Conference," Lecturer, San Antonio, Texas, October 25, 1996
- "Analyzing Unique Legal Concerns for Financing Government Healthcare Receivables," Speaker, AIC Conferences, Inc., Financing Healthcare Receivables Conference, Chicago, Illinois, March 28, 1996
- "Emerging Areas in Securitization Conference," Lecturer, New York, New York, September 1994
- "Current Issues and Drafting Considerations," Lecturer, Conference on Partnerships, Limited Liability Companies, and Registered Limited Liability Partnerships, Houston, Texas, June 1994

Publications

- "More Accountability for Stark Statute Enforcement" Co-Authored with Mark Folk, Counsel to Counsel Magazine, January 8, 2008
- "Wall Street Options: Financing and Re-financing Options for Subacute Providers," Co-Authored with Mark D. Folk, National Subacute Care Association, Annual Conference and Exposition, May 15, 1996
- "Qui Tam Plaintiffs Abound," Co-Authored with Mark D. Folk, Peter R. Roest, National Law Journal, at B9, Apr. 24, 1995

Professional Affiliations

- American Health Lawyers Association
- Andrews Health Care Fraud Litigation Reporter: Member, Advisory Committee, 1995-2003
- Florida Hospital Association
- National Advisory Council for Healthcare Research and Quality (sponsored by Rabobank Nederland and National Cooperative Bank): Past Member
- National Subacute Care Association, Inc.: Education Steering Committee
- Texas Bar Association: Chair, Securities Law Committee of Section of Business Law, 1994-1996
- Texas Bar Foundation

Shareholder

Fort Lauderdale
(954) 703-3901
linda.robison@fowlerwhite.com

Practice Areas

Business Transactions and Corporate Law
Health Care Business
Health Care Compliance
Mergers and Acquisitions

Industries

Banking and Financial Services
Energy
Health Care
Transportation and Logistics

Education

J.D., University of Houston, Bates College of Law, 1976
B.A., Auburn University, 1969

Bar Admissions

Florida
Texas

FOWLER WHITE BOGGS BANKER
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

The power of experience®

Linda M. Robison

---

Distinctions

AV Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell