

Robert Angus Williams

Robert Angus Williams has experience in land use and zoning matters, developments of regional impact, local government permitting and environmental representation.

Representative Experience

- Pinellas County State Attorney's Office, Pinellas, FL
Assistant State Attorney, May 1995-July 1999
Felony Division, January 1998- July 1999
- Pinellas County State Attorney's Office, Pinellas, FL
Misdemeanor Division, January 1997-January 1998
- Pinellas County State Attorney's Office, Pinellas, FL
Juvenile Division, May 1995-January 1997
- Pinellas County State Attorney's Office, Pinellas, FL
Intern, Spring 1995
- St. Petersburg City Attorney's Office, St. Petersburg, FL
Litigation Department, Intern, Fall 1994
- Harold E. Barker, P.A., Artman & Barker, P.A.
Law Clerk, April 1993-December 1994

Presentations and Publications

Presentations

- "Current Case Law and Legislative Update," Speaker, Orlando, Florida, June 2, 2008; Tampa, Florida, June 3, 2008
- "Land Use Law: Current Issues in Subdivision, Annexation and Zoning," Speaker, Orlando, Florida, November 15, 2006; Tampa, Florida, November 16, 2006
- "Quasi-Judicial Hearings," Speaker, June 22, 2004
- "Real Estate Development Beginning to End," Speaker, August 2006

Professional Affiliations

- The Barney Masterson Inn of Court: Trial Advocacy
- Leadership Tampa Bay: Alumni
- Pasco Builders Association: Past Vice President, Board of Directors

Distinctions

AV Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell

Shareholder

Tampa
(813) 222-1104
rwilliams@fowlerwhite.com

Practice Areas

Environmental & Land Use
Land Use & Zoning

Industries

Agribusiness

Education

J.D., Stetson University College of Law, 1995
B.S., The University of Florida, 1991

Bar Admissions

Florida

Court Admissions

U.S. District Court, Middle District of Florida